LS Horizon (Lao) Limited – Lao PDR: Our Lao PDR office provides a full range of corporate and commercial legal services to both international and local clients, from both the public and private sectors, as well as international organizations. Our office is located in the heart of the business district, fully equipped with all business facilities and appropriate infrastructure.

LS Horizon (Myanmar) Limited – Myanmar: In line with our policy of becoming a regional law firm, LS Horizon set up an office in Yangon, the Republic of the Union of Myanmar (Myanmar) in the year 2012. Our office in Yangon is able to provide legal services to cater to the needs of both local and foreign investors that are interested in doing business in Myanmar and are keen on establishing a foothold in the region's newest prime investment destination. Our team in Yangon consists of qualified local attorneys with previous legal practice experience in Myanmar as well as lawyers with experience in cross-border transactions from our team in Thailand.

We have highly experienced Lao lawyers, Myanmar lawyers and foreign lawyers with extensive experience working on complex projects and sophisticated transactions in the Lao PDR and Myanmar, who reside and work full time on the ground in Vientiane and Yangon. The Lao and Myanmar legal teams work closely with our Thai and foreign lawyers, with full support from the Thai Office. Where necessary and appropriate so as to provide optimal benefits to our clients, we can draw on the legal expertise and resources of the team in Thailand to provide legal services and to complete transactions for our clients in a timely, efficient and effective manner.

We provide full-fledged legal assistance to the clients from the initial investment planning stage throughout on-going business operations, where we assist the clients in relation to all matters, including providing general legal advice applicable to their business and specific projects, establishment of business organizations (Lao and Myanmar company, branch and representative offices), applying for necessary business licenses (including the permit under the Foreign Investment Law), advising on various transactions including contracts related to immovable property, financing arrangements, labor laws, energy-related issues, monetary remittance and other matters.

Recognition

Our LS Horizon (Lao) Limited has been ranked by IFLR 1000 for 2014 as Tier 1 in Financial and Corporate and has been ranked as Band 2 for General Business Law by Chambers Asia Pacific 2013 and 2014.
